RESPONSE TO DECISION ON PETITION TO WITHDRAW
HOLDING OF ABANDONMENT

P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450

Sir:

The undersigned attorney has received the PTO's decision dismissing a petition to the PTO to withdraw a holding of abandonment in the above-referenced application. In response, the undersigned submits a petition for revival of an application for patent abandoned unintentionally, along with the payment of the appropriate fee.

The undersigned attorney spoke with Senior Attorney, John J. Gillon, Jr. of the U.S. PTO over the dismissal decision, and understands that the application was abandoned due to the failure of the PTO to receive corrected drawings. Therefore, the undersigned has submitted corrected/replacement drawings in connection with the petition to revive. In addition, attorney Gillon explained that the petition to withdraw the holding of abandonment was dismissed largely because of the lack of supporting evidence provided by the previous attorney (Randy Tung).

The undersigned also understands that such a petition to revive is typically signed by the attorney who was responsible for prosecuting the application at the time of abandonment (which was the former attorney Randy Tung). In this case, however, the undersigned believes that the previously filed petition, which was signed by Randy Tung, satisfies this requirement. That is, the petition to withdraw the holding of abandonment, which was signed by Randy Tung, clearly satisfies any PTO requirement that such a petition (which also evidences the unintentional nature of the abandonment) has been signed by the prosecuting attorney. Accordingly, the accompanying petition, which is signed by the undersigned attorney, in connection with the previously submitted petition, is believed to satisfy all PTO requirements for supporting the revival and issuance of this application.

No additional fee is believed to be due in connection with this submission beyond that associated with the Petition to Revive. If, however, any fee is deemed to be payable, you are hereby authorized to charge any such fee to deposit account 20-0778.

Respectfully submitted,
/Daniel R. McClure/
